Index

Agricultural industry, 131, 132; and Food, ix; people engaged in, in 1816, as contrasted to 1910, 113.
Allies, policy, towards Germany, 11.
Alsace-Lorraine, as a cotton-producing region, 99.
American Friends' Service Committee, 158.
—— Relief Administration, 159.
Armistice, 81.
Article 165, National Constitution, 42, 43, 56.
Association, coöperative, 127.
Associations: agricultural, 128; consumers', 129; industrial, 127, 128.
AUFHAUSER, S., xii; Industrial Councils in Germany, 48–53.
Austria, economic and industrial situation, 27–29.
Auxiliary service law, 37.

Balderston, Robert W., v.
Berlin, housing situation, 139.
Betriebsräte, 37, 94; practical significance, 59. See also Councils, Workmen's Councils.
Betriebsrätegesetz, formation, 55; general regulations, 56; summary, 56; workmen's representation before, 55.
Bolshevism, possibility of, 8.
BONN, M. J., xii; Main Features of Germany's Economic and Financial Situation, 106–111.
Breitscheid, Dr., 31, 32.
BRUCK, W. F., xii; The Cotton Industry in Germany, 99–105.
Bureaucracy, 154.

Capital: means to procure, 140; working, means of stretching, 105.
Cars: freight, 89; passenger, 89.
CARY, RICHARD L., v; Child-Feeding Work in Germany, 157–162.
Causes of housing problem: economic, 137; social, 139.
Child-feeding: 159; operations, 162.
CHILD-FEEDING WORK IN GERMANY. Richard L. Cary, 157–162.
Child mortality, increase, 3.
Coal: exportation, 138; exports to Poland and German Austria, 1919–20, 68; forced shipments, 69; import and export, 67, 68; lack, cause of high prices, 86; price, in Italy, 27; rationing, 71; shortage, 74, 107; source of supply, 87, 88; supplies, 66; to be delivered to Allies, 92.
—— production: 107; brown, 1913–19, 67; by districts, 74; hard, 1913–19, 66; hard, reduction in, 66; importance of, to world, 116; influenced by political events, 73.
—— situation: improvement in, 107; means to improve, 72.
COAL QUESTION IN GERMANY. Ernst Herbig, 66–75.
Coke production, 1913–19, 66.
Co-management, right of, 51.
Commerce, ix, 96; effects of Peace Treaty, 96.
COMMERCIAL AND POLITICAL ASPECTS OF PRESENT-DAY GERMANY. Isaac Wolf, Jr., 21–25.
COMMERCIAL SITUATION, OUR. F. H. Witthoefft, 96–98.
Congress of Nürnberg, 63, 65.
Control, joint, right of, 58.
Coöperation: of councils, 50; of industrial councils, in reconstruction of economic life, 52.
Coöperatives, work of, 123.
COÖPERATIVES AFTER THE WAR, THE GERMAN. Franz Staundinger, pp. 122–130.
Cotton: consumption, 103; production, 104; use, per capita, 101; raw, cost, 100; raw, importation, 101.
—— industry, return to normal conditions, 104.
COTTON INDUSTRY IN GERMANY, THE. W. F. Bruck, 99–105.
Council: factory, duties, 45; position, 44, 45; Great Berlin Executive, 41; National Economic, 43, 44, 64; National Workmen's, 64; Works, duties, 153.
COUNCIL MOVEMENT IN GERMANY, THE RESULTS OF THE. Hans Schäffer, 41–47.
Council System, 63.
Councils: district workmen's, 56; Economic, formation, 42, 43; empire workmen's, 56; factory workmen's, 56; industrial, 50, 53; political, 41; soldiers', accomplishments, 48; workers', 48; workmen's, 54, 58, 94; workmen's and employes', 50; workmen's and soldiers', 41; workmen's and soldiers', political effectiveness of, 63. See also National Industrial Council, Workmen's Councils, Workmen's and Soldiers' Councils, Work Councils.

CRAVATH, PAUL D. Impressions of the Financial and Industrial Conditions in Germany, 5–12.
Crisis, commercial, 23.
Czecho-Slovakia, need of credit, 30.

Day, length of working, for industrial workers, 38.
Debt: national, 142; reparation, payment, 110, 111.
Deutscher Zentral Ausschuss, 159, 161.
Disarmament, 6.
Disputes, labor, prevention of, 59.

Economic situation, 21, 22.
ECONOMIC AND FINANCIAL SITUATION, THE MAIN FEATURES OF. M. J. Bonn, 106–111.
Eight-hour day, introduction, on railroads, 82. See also Production and the eight-hour day, 16, 17.
Emigration, a factor in housing problem, 139.
Employes, lack of interest, 120.
Enterprises, industrial, classes, 144, 145.
England, present conditions, 33.
Erfurt Program, Social Democratic Party, 153.
European Children's Fund, 157, 158, 162.
Exchange, German, 109.
Export, German, 98.
Export and import trade figures, 96.
Exports, 24.

Fares, increased, effects, 89.
Farm production, decline, on account of shortage of imports, 131.
FEHLINGER, H., xii; The Industrial Policies of the Large Political Parties in Germany, 150–156.
Fertilizers, lack of, an obstacle to production, 136.
FILENE, EDWARD A. The World Mix-Up and the Way Out, 26–34.
FINANCIAL AND INDUSTRIAL CONDITIONS IN GERMANY, IMPRESSIONS OF. Paul D. Cravath, 5–12.
Financial situation, 108.
Food and agriculture, ix.
Food: lack of, 7; need, 98; rations, per person, Oct. 1, 1916–June 30, 1917, 133; shortage, 86, 115; shortage, degenerating effect, 119; shortage, physical and psychical effects of, 132; situation, 106; smuggling, 134.
FOOD CONDITIONS AND AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTION. Dr. Huber, 131–136.
Foodstuffs, scarcity of, 21, 106; shortage of, 114, 157.
France, attitude, toward present situation, 32, 33.
Free industry, 150.
Freight traffic during the war, 80.

Gerard, Ambassador, 21, 22.
German Centrist Party, 152.
German Democratic Party, platform, 152.
—— Local Committees, 158.
—— Nationalist Party, platform, 150.
—— people, change in attitude since the war, 2.
—— People's Party, platform, 150, 151.
Germany: indemnity problem, 30; labor conditions, 31.
Goods, scarcity, 106.
Government, coalition, 154.
—— control of industry, 143.
Guild socialism, 147, 148.

HERBIG, ERNST, xii; The Coal Question in Germany, 66–75.
Home markets, Germany as a competitor in, 13–15.
Hoover, Herbert, 157, 158.
Hoover program, 160, 161.
HORTENS, ALFONS, xii; Is Economic Rehabilitation of Germany Along Socialistic Lines Possible? 142–149.
Housing conditions, 114.
—— problem: economic causes, 137; social causes, 139.
HOUSING PROBLEM IN GERMANY, THE. Walther de Laporte, 137–141.
HUBER, DR., xii; Food Conditions and Agricultural Production, 131–136.
HYGIENIC AND ECONOMIC CONDITIONS, NATIONAL. Arthur Schlossman, 112–118.

Immigration, a factor in housing problem, 139.
Importation of foodstuffs for home consumption, 131.
Imports, 24.
Indemnity, large, ability of Germany to pay Allies, 9.
Independent Socialist Party, 153, 154.
Industrial council statutes, 64.
INDUSTRIAL COUNCILS IN GERMANY. S. Aufhäuser, 48–53.
Industrial Councils Law, 49, 52.
INDUSTRIAL POLICIES OF THE LARGE POLITICAL PARTIES IN GERMANY. H. Fehlinger, 150–156.
Industrial production, problems, 15, 16.
Industries: manufacturing, promotion of, 151; operation, after the war, 61.
Industry: German, reactionary effect on, 70, 71; government control, 143; spinning, 102;

spin weaving, 103; state control, 143; weaving, 102; women in, effects of, 115. See also Iron Industry.
Insurance, workingmen's, 35, 36.
Iron industries, English, as compared with German, 91.
IRON INDUSTRY, ACTUAL CONDITION AND PROSPECTS OF GERMANY'S. Otto Wiedfeldt, 91–95.
Iron industry: combinations resorted to, to lower cost of production, 95; during the war, 92; effect of Peace Treaty on, 92; future of Germany's, 91; main centers, 91; support of German economic life, 91.
IS ECONOMIC REHABILITATION OF GERMANY ALONG SOCIALISTIC LINES POSSIBLE? Alfons Hortens, 142–149.
IS GERMANY APPROACHING THE ABYSS? Charles Trevelyan, 1–4.
Italy, industrial conditions, 26, 27.

Labor: x; conditions, factors affecting, 73; conditions, regulated by labor organizations, 38; problem, factors in solving, 19, 20.
LABOR LEGISLATION IN GERMANY, THE DEVELOPMENT OF. Hugo Sinzheimer, 35–40.
Laborer, high quality of German, 104.
LAPORTE, WALTHER DE, xii; The Housing Problem in Germany, 137–141.
Living conditions, 113.
Locomotives, 88, 89.
Loyalty, a spirit of, needed, 120.

Management, joint, of industry, 63.
Managers of industry, work of, 61, 62.
Mark, value, 24, 100.
Military system, collapse, 83.
Minister of Finance, report of, 142.
Money market, inflation in, 82.
Morale, 22.
MORALS. F. Siegmund-Schultze, 119–121.
Mortality, child, 134.

National Assembly, 48, 49.
National Industrial Council, 156.
—— workmen's council, work, 64.
NEUTRAL, THE OPINION OF A. A. E. Stoll, 13–20.

Office buildings, need, to relieve housing situation, 140, 141.
ORSE, HERMANN, xiii; The New "Workmen's Councils" Legislation, 54–60.
Ollendorff, Friedrich, v.
Ores, shipping, to Germany, 93.
Organizations, coöperative, consolidation, 122.

Peace Treaty, 83; effects of, 110; effect of, on iron industry, 92; effects on resources, 54; loss of territory because of, 132.
Phosphate, raw, need of, 136.
Pig-iron, production, restriction, 92.
Political organizations of the working classes, 62.
—— situation in Germany, 21, 22.
Population, increase, 96; increase, during twenty years preceding war, 113.
Postal and telegraph systems, 84.
Prices, free, 99; governmentally-fixed, 99; increase in, 94, 127; increased, of raw materials, 145.
Private property, 150.
Production: agricultural, lack of fertilizers an obstacle to, 136; industrial, problems of, 15, 16; large-scale, socialization of, 145; moral factors in, 17–19.
—— and the eight-hour day, 16, 17.
Produktion, Germany's model coöperative, 127.
PROGRAM OF GERMAN SOCIALIZED INDUSTRIAL MANAGEMENTS. Paul Umbreit, 61–65.

Rachitis, increase of, 117.
Railroads: consolidation of German state, 84; loss of, 83; state, nationalized, 83.
RAILWAY TRANSPORTATION IN GERMANY. Dr. Weirauch, 87–90.
Raw materials: need, from United States, 98; shortage, 158.
Reichsbank, 108.
Reichstag, 64.
Relief movements in Europe, 157.
Representations, factory, construction, 57.
Restoration, program for, 84
Revolution, industrial, 113.
Rights and duties, fundamental, 42.
Rolling-stock, 87; extensive use of, 81.

Saar Valley, hard coal in, 66, 67.
Sanitariums, closed for lack of fuel and food, 117.
SCHAFFER, HANS, xiii; Results of the Council Movement in Germany, 41–47.
SCHLOSSMANN, ARTHUR, xiii; National Hygienic and Economic Conditions, 112–118.
Schulze-Delitsch, 122, 124.
Shortage of foodstuffs, and raw materials, 157.
Sickness insurance, 112.
SIEGMUND-SCHULTZE, FRIEDRICH, xiii; Morals, 119–121.
SINZHEIMER, HUGO, xiii; The Development of Labor Legislation in Germany, 35–40.
Social Democratic Party, 153; influence, 156.
—— statutes, development, 112.

Socialism, guild, 147, 148.
Socialization: 148, 150; how put in practice, 146; objectives to be attained by, 142; of works, 94.
SOCIALIZED INDUSTRIAL MANAGEMENTS, THE PROGRAM OF GERMAN. Paul Umbreit, 61–65.
Spa agreement, 70, 138.
Spinneries, operation, 100.
Spinning: finer grades, 103; industry, 102.
Starvation in Germany, 2, 3.
State control of industry, 143.
—— lines, consolidation, 90.
—— railroads: competition between, 77, 78; nationalized, 83.
Statutes, industrial council, 64.
STAUNDINGER, FRANZ, xiii; The German Co-operatives After the War, 122–130.
STOLL, A. E. The Opinion of a "Neutral," 13–20.
Syndicalism, 147, 148.

Taxation, income from, 109.
Taxes, increase in, 54.
Taylor system, introduction, 139.
Telegraph and postal systems, 78.
Trade, centralization, 96.
Trade-unionism, 59.
Trade-unions, 53, 57; necessity for, 37.
Transportation: x; dependent on coal, 87; before the war, 76, 77; by water, during pre-war period, 78, 79; problem, during the war, 79, 80.
TRANSPORTATION AND COMMUNICATION, GERMAN. Ministerialrat von Völcker, 76–86.
Treaty of Versailles, 1, 2, 83, 110; ability to recover from financial and economic distress imposed by war and enforcement of, 9, 10; cause of depreciation of values, 86; Germany's attitude toward, 5, 6.
TREVELYAN, CHARLES. Is Germany Approaching the Abyss? 1–4.
Tuberculosis: increase, 3, 116; deaths from, 134.

UMBREIT, PAUL, xiii; The Program of German Socialized Industrial Managements, 61–65.
Undernourishment, effects, 135.
Unemployed, 72.
Unions, national workmen's, 63.
United States, need of coöperation of, to settle European situation, 33, 34.

Values, depreciation, 86.
Venereal diseases, increase, 117.
Vienna: lack of food, fuel and clothing in, 28; rate of wages, 28, 29.
VÖLCKER, DR. VON, xiii; German Transportation and Communication, 76–86.

Wage agreements, 36, 38.
Wages: 35; high, and shorter hours, effect, on cotton industry, 100; increase of, an obstacle to building, 138; increased, cause of higher prices, 82.
Weaving industry, 102.
WEIRAUCH, DR., xiii; Railway Transportation in Germany, 87–90.
WIEDFELDT, OTTO, xiii; Actual Condition and Prospects of Germany's Iron Industry, 91–95.
WITTHOEFFT, F. H., xiii; Our Commercial Situation, 96–98.
WOLF, ISAAC, JR. Commercial and Political Aspects of Present-Day Germany, 21–25.
Working classes, political organization, 62.
Workingmen, lack of protection, 36, 37.
Workmen's Councils, 54, 58, 94.
"WORKMEN'S COUNCILS" LEGISLATION, THE NEW. Hermann Ohse, 54–60.
Workmen's and Soldiers' Councils, political effectiveness of, 63.
Works council, 37, 39, 156.
Works council law, 39, 40.
WORLD MIX-UP AND THE WAY OUT, THE. Edward A. Filene, 26–34.